

Talking through the message during the week helps you turn what God is saying to you into action steps. These talking points, questions and scriptures are designed to help you take the next step. If you are leading a group through this guide, don't feel like you have to answer every question. Pick out the questions that will stir up conversation and action among your group.

- During FAQ, which questions have made the most impact on you?

With your Bible or YouVersion, read Ephesians 5:1-20.

This passage gives us insight on whether masturbation and drinking are sins. It emphasizes the importance of purity in our lives.

- The battle for purity starts with the eyes and the mind. What safeguards have you put in place to help protect purity in your own life?
- How are you successfully modeling your life after Christ? Which areas of your life still need to change?
- How can we keep ourselves pure while living in a society that does not support God's ideals?
- Read 1 Corinthians 6:12. Describe a time when you chose to do something that may have been permissible, but ultimately was not beneficial to your life.

Read Isaiah 47:13-15 and Deuteronomy 18:10-12.

These verses answer the question "Should Christians read their horoscopes?"

- What have you put your faith in besides God? How can you keep your focus on God?
- What are some of the dangers of placing your faith in things other than God?

Read John 10:27-28, Ephesians 1:13-14, Hebrews 6:4-6, Matthew 7:21 and Luke 8:13.

These verses attempt to answer the controversial question of whether a Christian can lose their salvation.

- Based upon what these verses say and what you learned in the message, do you believe a Christian can lose their salvation? Why or why not?

NEXT STEPS

Here are some specific things you can do this week to help you seek answers to life's tough questions:

We all have questions. The Bible still has answers! The series FAQ may be over, but your search for answers does not have to end here. This week, begin collecting your frequently asked questions. Keep them in a journal or a notebook. During your quiet time with God, periodically try to answer some of these questions by researching God's Word. Not only will this help you find the answers, but it will also help you dig deeper into the Bible!

Talk It Over with God:

- Confess the areas of your life where you lack purity. Ask for His strength.
- Ask God to help you establish safeguards in your life that will protect your purity.
- Commit to make God your only focus and put aside the things you have put ahead of or in place of Him.
- Thank God for His wonderful grace and tell Him how much He means to you. Praise Him.
- Ask God to continue to help you find the answers to some of your most frequently asked questions.
